

Clovis Elks Lodge
535 Woodworth Ave
Clovis., Calif
Starts at 6:30

Greg Waters, KJ6OUI, has been an amateur extra class since 2014 and resides in Fresno, California. He is currently employed at BICC of California as a behavior analyst. Greg has been serving as a public information officer for San Joaquin Valley region since 2013 and he is also an active member of Fresno County Emcomm ARES/RACES since 2011. Prior to his lead instructor appointment, class sizes ranged from 3 to 5 students and after Greg was voted in as lead coordinator in August of 2015 his first class had over thirty students attend and pass the technician class license exam. Greg is active participant in the off road community and belongs to Clovis Independent 4 Wheelers and 4x4Him and promotes the use of amateur radio use in the off road community and mutual aid between the two hobbies.

Greg earned a masters degree in business administration from California State University, Fresno and attended University of the Pacific for a masters in psychology with an emphasis in behavioral analysis. Greg earned a bachelors degree in Psychology with an emphasis in behavior analysis and minor in Sociology from California State University, Fresno. Greg also obtained an EMT-Paramedic license in 2001, which is no longer current.

Greg Waters, KJ6OUI

Public Information Coordinator, San Joaquin Valley Section, ARRL

Radio Amateur Civil Emergency Service (RACES) PIO/Liaison

Amateur Radio Emergency Service (ARES) Instructor/Examiner

Amateur Radio Instructor/Mentor/Examiner

Mobile - (559) 360-7396 Email: kj6oui@arrl.net