PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hi all, I hope you had a great Christmas and are looking forward to a fabulous New Year! Before we begin to look ahead, I would like to look back and give my personal thanks to Jan Mikkelson, Debbie McFarren and Pat Peverill for serving our club for the past 2 years as directors. Not only were they at the board meetings and general meetings, but they brought much to our club and supported many other activities. My hope is they will continue with their support and ideas for our club. Be sure to tell them a big "Thanks" when you see them.

Looking at the year ahead, we have a new board in place and are making plans for rides, work parties and projects. This year we hope to improve the cook trailer by adding hot water and a sink. Our poker rides seem to be a big hit and are continuing to grow, Hensley in the spring and Tamarack in Aug. This year the Tamarack poker ride will replace the Shaver ride with the addition of overnight camping and two rides to choose from.

If you are not aware, our unit now has three camp grounds. We continue to have a camp at Shaver (thank you Wanda). We also sponsor Chamberlain camp out of Courtwright in the Sierra and we have Big Meadows in the Sequoia (thank you Jim and Duane). What a huge undertaking, but this unit makes all this a success.

We just had our first general meeting of the New Year at our new venue the Elks Lodge. This seems to be a great change as we can now offer coffee and snacks. We may even look into a potluck. Stay posted for upcoming speakers at our general meetings.

Our unit continues to grow thanks to you. I would like to thank all members for whatever role you play. Whether you serve on the board, host a ride, come to events or do not ride any more, but continue to support what we do, THANK YOU!

Please, if you are considering hosting a ride let me or another board member know and we will be glad to walk you through the process and help you to make the ride a success.

Remember to stay in the saddle,
the ground is hard,
Joe Kaminski, President

BIG MEADOWS HORSE CAMP (still free horse camping)

By Duane Peverill

In 2016 our club decided we would take over the supervision of the Big Meadows Horse Camp. Many of our club members, as well as other horsemen, have enjoyed the site over the years. The reason the club stepped in to take on the supervision of the camp was that the US Forest Service was going to turn the camp over to a vendor. This would have meant that going to the camp would have been by reservation only and probably pretty expensive.

The camp was built by BCHC members and it was used by horsemen for years on a first-come-first serve basis, camping was free, and it worked pretty well. President Joe K. talked to the Forest Service about the possibility of our club running the Horse Camp the way it had always been run. The Forest Service was agreeable and after consideration, the club decided to run the camp in 2016. The downsides to our club are that we need to provide someone to host on-site during the season and there are the expenses of trash removal and latrine supplies. Also, we cannot actively solicit for funds and we rely on donations only to get the funds to cover our expenses.

2016 Results Success! Thanks to our volunteer camp hosts and some good donors, the camp was open and we covered our expenses. We learned a few things (It is a horse camp only – and we still have quite a few people wanting to use the camp in September.) Bottom line – a lot of horse people got to do some riding and camping. Our club also had its traditional work party, camping//riding outing at the camp.

2017 Plans: The club will continue running the camp as in 2016 – free, no reservations, and reliant on donations. We already have some members volunteering to be camp hosts. Do you want to be a host? (Cool high Sierra site and corrals for your horses.) Contact Duane Peverill or Jim Knabke for more information. We plan to open the camp about May 25th this year (Weather may always intervene.) There is a club work party scheduled Jun 4 – 9th to make sure all is in order and working. If anyone needs more information about the camp, ask Duane or Jim or most club members.

Remember to encourage those that use the camp to donate a little. It will be cheaper and less restrictive in the long run.

Donations can be sent to :

A New Year- A New Direction

As we start 2017, the board is hoping for more participation by the members of the San Joaquin Sierra Unit. We have over 150 members in our unit and we would love to see you at the events we sponsor. We are always looking for ways to improve the activities of the unit. We need to hear from our members with suggestions on what the unit can do to increase participation. Tell us what kind of events you would like to see. Volunteers are always welcome to host an equine event.

We would like to see members submit articles to the newsletter on equine related adventures in which they have participated. Pat yourself on the back and let the members know of your accomplishments.

This year we have changed our General Meetings to the Clovis Elks Club and will have guest speakers at the meetings ranging from CHP on Trailer Safety, Veterinarian, Packing demonstrations and Farriers. There will be light refreshments.

Lets make 2017 an Equine event year that we all can appreciate. Contact any Board Member and get involved. Check out our web page for the calendar of activities and other great information. Web address is bchcsjsu.org. We are also on Facebook. Hope to see you at the upcoming events or help you in sponsoring an event.

Happy Trails.

Rose Bowl Parade

By Barbara Savery, Mid-Valley Unit

It was the thrill of a lifetime. 13 riders and two out walkers from the Mid-Valley Unit of Backcountry Horsemen of California appeared in the 128th Tournament of Roses Parade on January 2. Barbara Savery, Marshal, Sally Mole, Carlena Kellogg, Mary Beth Baglione, Anna Baglione and Barbara Baglione, Dennise Ann Davis, John Marshall, Dennis Serpa, Carl Perry, Julie Perry, Katherine Reeves and Jerrie Ann Thomas rode in the parade, while Nina Cash and Melissa Hardy served as out walkers. Almost 26 support people came along to help, including Lloyd Erlandson, BCHC's incoming President.

An appearance in the Rose Parade is by invitation only. After two years of riding in almost 25 parades, including the Salinas Rodeo Parade and the State Parade at Chowchilla, Mid-Valley was accepted by the Tournament of Roses Committee. The work didn't stop there, though. The group had to haul 26 animals down to Pomona, where they stayed at the L.A. Fairplex. "Normally, we would have stayed in Burbank at the L.A. Equestrian Center," says Barbara Savery, the group's Marshal. "But there was a severe outbreak of equine herpes virus at the Equestrian Center, so we had to relocate to Pomona, which was a lot longer drive. That got us tangled into the 210 Freeway every time we had to go somewhere."

Most of the group came down a week early to prepare their animals and to attend Rose Parade-related events, including the Official Reception and the Marshals' breakfast. The Reception was held at the Santa Anita Racetrack's Clubhouse and gave Mid-Valley a chance to meet members of the other equestrian groups taking part in the parade, including a miniature horse group that came all the way from Ohio. Most of Mid-Valley's pack stock came down the Friday before the parade. "The Fairplex got a lot livelier at that point," notes Barbara Savery. "Most of the mules had never been in stalls, so there was a lot of complaining at first."

The night before the parade, the Mid-Valley Unit had to leave the Fairplex at 8 p.m. to stage on a portion of the 210 Freeway that is closed for the parade. "They close it around 6 p.m. and have to reopen it at 10 a.m. the next morning," Barbara reports. "It is incredible. This is one of the busiest freeways in L.A. but they close it for the Rose Parade." On the way to the "pit", as the staging area on the freeway is called, one of the trucks broke down, but eventually everyone made it to the pit. After sleeping (or trying to sleep) on the freeway, the group got up at 4 a.m. and was lined up for the Rose Parade at 6:20 a.m. Then, a little after 8 a.m., they were fed onto Colorado Boulevard, Pasadena, CA.

"It was worth every minute of the work," reports Barbara. "We can't thank everyone for all their support. We hope we made the Backcountry Units proud and we were so honored to get the chance to ride on their behalf. It was a great New Year!"

Making browbands out of roses. every animal in the parade is required to have live flowers on it. Practicing at the L.A. Fairplex before the parade. Barb Savery, Marshal

ANNUAL CHRISTMAS PARTY By Carol Kaminski

What a great time we had at this year's Christmas party. It is always fun to see old friends and meet new friends. For those of you who attended, it was a great time to share stories and catch up since the last party.

As always a big thank you to Alan Fry's cook team. The tri-tip and chicken were delicious as were Fredi's beans. If you weren't there you missed a feast.

We so appreciate all the time in planning, cooking, serving and cleaning up for an event like this especially at this time of year. And to all you elves, thank you for helping make the evening eventful. It takes everyone helping to make the evening a success.

There were also elves on the scene Saturday morning to decorate. A big thank you to Cathie Walker and her crew on the beautiful centerpieces. It is always fun to see what cute ideas she and her crew come up with to share with us.

Danny Baumgardner was on the premises as our live auctioneer. There was some lively bidding on many items including a .22 rifle. The winner was Peggy Riddle who outbid her sister. What fun!

Our silent auction was a success thanks to many donations from many people, especially Susan Turner. We so appreciate all the donations and items that magically appeared that night. It was a great time to do some last minute Christmas shopping.

If you missed us this year we are already scheduled for next year. Same time, same place but with new ideas. Put us on the calendar, December 9, 2017. Hope to see you then.

GENERAL MEETING, ALL MEMBERS OF BCHCSJSU

We had our first General Meeting of 2017 at the Elks Lodge in Clovis. It was a cold rainy night, but many chose to come out and hear from the Honorable Ron Goode who spoke from a Native American perspective on meadow restoration. He had many insights and facts to show how necessary meadows are to our forest. Even with the current drought, he showed how the trees in the healthy meadows were not affected by the bark beetle.

The meadows are a vital part of water storage and support many plants and wildlife. On a somewhat humorous note, but serious still, he explained how, for native people, in the past a forest that was too thick was a detriment to being able to keep an eye on the children while taking part in the harvest and gathering of acorns. With an open forest you can observe the children and also see if predators are in the area. With a healthy meadow, predators have more natural prey in the area than in a completely canopied area.

For those of you who missed this, you missed out on a lot of information. I consider Ron a friend of BCHC and am very appreciative of his time given to our meeting.

Just a Reminder of Trail Etiquette

Do Not Tie Stock to Trees
Be Neat-Don't Litter
Don't Smoke on the Trail
Be Polite When Meeting Others-on Foot or Horseback
Give Right of Way When Possible
Horses do Not Always Have The Right Of Way
Saddle Horses Should Give Way To Pack Stock
When Overtaken Let Them By At First Opportunity
Don't Crowd The Horse In Front Of You
Stay On The Trail-Don't Take Short Cuts
Keep Dogs Under Control

As an equestrian organization we should all practice the above. Remember we may encounter people that are not aware of proper trail etiquette and it is our responsibility to help educate all trail users. Be it hikers, bikers or other equine riders. Lets make our trails safe and enjoyable for all. Happy Trails
